Ms. Branch, I was busy with a situation in one of my blocks and did not get it resolved until almost 4:00 pm. I spoke with Jerry Wells, This morning and he informed me that Judge Barrett had not made a decision on the attorney fees. Can you email me any information on what is now happening?

Sgt. Wells,

I called Judge Barrett's office and since the receipt has been docketed you do not need to file your copy of the receipt. It looks like the receipt was docketed while we were on the phone with the Judge.

Sgt. Hunt,

In response to your email I am forwarding the entry from Friday's telephone conference which summarizes what happened. You should receive a copy in the mail. I have until the end of this week to supplement the attorney fees motion on the issue the Judge raised - whether we should be awarded fees for the first trial. The Judge will enter an order giving you until January 8, 2007 to pay the $455 appeal filing fee. I will email that order to you when it is entered. The court will mail it to you as well.
